FINAL ORDER

¶1 The appellant has filed a petition for review of the initial decision, which dismissed his petition for enforcement as withdrawn. For the reasons set forth below, the appellant's petition for review is DISMISSED as untimely filed without good cause shown. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.114(e), (g).

<sup>1</sup> A nonprecedential order is one that the Board has determined does not add significantly to the body of MSPB case law. Parties may cite nonprecedential orders, but such orders have no precedential value; the Board and administrative judges are not required to follow or distinguish them in any future decisions. In contrast, a precedential decision issued as an Opinion and Order has been identified by the Board as significantly contributing to the Board's case law. See 5 C.F.R. § 1201.117(c).

¶2 The administrative judge issued an August 15, 2014 initial decision in which he dismissed the appellant's petition for enforcement as withdrawn. The initial decision informed the parties that it would become the final decision of the Board on September 19, 2014 unless a petition for review was filed by that date. Initial Decision at 4. On June 17, 2018, the appellant filed a petition for review nearly 4 years out of time. Petition for Review (PFR) File, Tab 1. The Clerk of the Board informed the appellant that his petition for review appeared to be untimely filed and instructed him to submit evidence and argument showing that the petition for review was timely filed or that good cause existed for the delay in filing. PFR File, Tab 2. The appellant has not responded to the Clerk's notice.

¶3 A petition for review must be filed within 35 days after the date of issuance of the initial decision. Walker v. Department of Health & Human Services, 111 M.S.P.R. 473, ¶ 5 (2009); Williams v. Office of Personnel Management, 109 M.S.P.R. 237, ¶ 7 (2008). The Board will waive the filing deadline only upon a showing of good cause for the delay in filing. Walker, 111 M.S.P.R. 473, ¶ 5; Williams, 109 M.S.P.R. 237, ¶ 7.

¶4 Here, the deadline for filing a petition for review was September 14, 2014 and the appellant filed his petition for review on June 17, 2018. The appellant has not alleged that he received the initial decision more than 5 days after it was issued. Although the Clerk afforded the appellant the opportunity to show good cause for the untimely filing, the appellant has not offered any reason for the delay in filing his petition for review, and he failed to respond to the Clerk's notice on the untimeliness of his petition for review. Thus, we find that he has failed to show good cause for the untimeliness of his petition for review. See Bell v. Department of Homeland Security, 112 M.S.P.R. 33, ¶ 8 (2009); Garside v. Office of Personnel Management, 109 M.S.P.R. 65, ¶ 6 (2008).

¶5 This is the final decision of the Merit Systems Protection Board regarding the timeliness of the petition for review. The initial decision remains the final decision of the Board regarding the dismissal of the petition for enforcement as withdrawn.

NOTICE OF APPEAL RIGHTS<sup>2</sup>

You may obtain review of this final decision. 5 U.S.C. § 7703(a)(1). By statute, the nature of your claims determines the time limit for seeking such review and the appropriate forum with which to file. 5 U.S.C. § 7703(b). Although we offer the following summary of available appeal rights, the Merit Systems Protection Board does not provide legal advice on which option is most appropriate for your situation and the rights described below do not represent a statement of how courts will rule regarding which cases fall within their jurisdiction. Failure to file within the applicable time limit may result in the dismissal of your case by your chosen forum.

Please read carefully each of the three main possible choices of review below to decide which one applies to your particular case. If you have questions about whether a particular forum is the appropriate one to review your case, you should contact that forum for more information.
